SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

YEAR A

God of amazing compassion
 and lover of our wayward race,
 you call us to be a blessing for all the world:
 keep us on this holy path,
 confident in the radiant life you offer;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord,
 who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and forever.
 Amen.

PRAYERS

In your loving kindness, O God
Have mercy and hear our prayer

Lord, in the night-time of his questing, Nicodemus came to your Son wondering and puzzling over all he had seen.

Come to your church and meet us as we seek to deepen our faith ...

Fill with your spirit all who have been baptised in your name.

In Abraham we share a common heritage with people of different races, languages and creeds.

Unite all people in a common humanity ...

Watch over the nations and bless the families of the earth.

Preserve us, O Lord, from all that is evil and would do us harm.

Increase in us your gift of grace and charity ...

Lift our gaze to the heights of your presence.

In the night-time of our despair we call to you for help, for relief, for healing.

Be with all who long for reprieve in their sufferings ...

Restore within us hope in you.

Lord, you came not to condemn but to save; to give life to the dead.

Look with mercy upon the children of your promise who have departed this life ...

Grant eternal life to all who trust in you. Amen.

PREPARING FOR SUNDAY

The nameless Samaritan ‘evangelist’ aka ‘the Woman at the Well’ is a very dramatic and important Gospel narrative. As we journey from Ash Wednesday to Easter an important ‘Station to the Cross,’ is this story.

The Gospel truth is that Jesus meets people in their everyday life. This teaches that no life is ordinary, because God in Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit, seeks to engage us in the normal flow of our lives.

She did not know she would meet Jesus. After all, men did not speak to women, so she was not really expecting to have an engaging conversation with anyone. At the ‘wells’ we need to go ‘fill’ up are we open to allowing God to meet us and even engage us about our lives?
